

Gerald Day
Grocer of the Year

The Salt Lake Tribune

Terry Harmon, president of Harmon's Inc., has been elected chairman of the board of directors of the Utah Retail Grocers Association.

The election was held at the association's annual convention last week in Salt Lake City.

Also at that convention, Gerald Day, president of Day's Market, was named Grocer of the Year by the Manufacturers' Representatives Club of Utah.

That honor goes each year to a retail grocer who exemplifies the finer qualities of the industry and has proven himself to be a successful food store operator.

Mr. Day operates seven stores in Utah and one in Diamondville, Wyo. The Utah stores are located in Alpine, Heber City, Hyrum, Nephi, Payson, Provo and Vernal. He is also chairman of the board for Associated Food Stores Inc., the area's largest warehouse for independent food stores.

Mr. Day has been in the retail food industry for 39 years. He began working in the food industry while in high school in Roosevelt.

He later worked as a store manager for two large food chains and then left to become an independent grocer by purchasing the Heber Exchange.

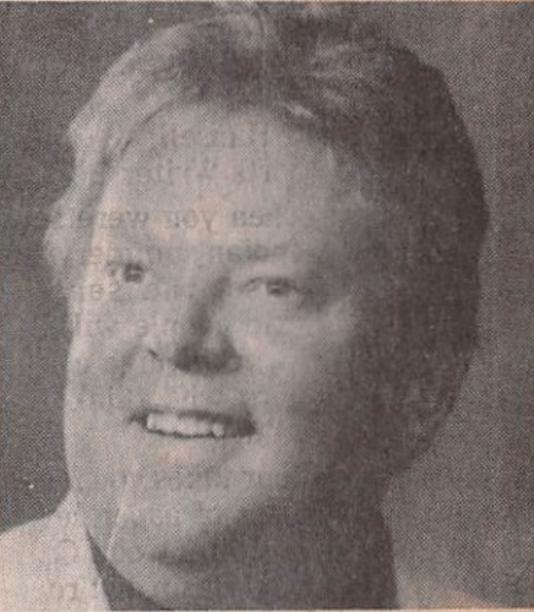

Elected to lead the Utah Retail Grocers Association with Mr. Harmon, helping to make up the association's executive committee, are Phil Barber, Winegar's Supermarkets, chairman-elect; Wilbur Stephenson, Wil's Foodtown, vice chairman; Danny Parris, Dan's Foods, secretary-treasurer and Ken Macey, Macey's Inc, immediate past chairman.

Other grocers association board members for 1986-87 include Jim Baker, 7-Eleven Stores; Ron Norton, Norton's Food Centers; Doris Smith, Food 4 Less; Kent Wansgard, Kar Kwik Convenience Stores; Tom Winegar, Tom Winegar's Thriftway; Jack Steadman, Ream's Food Stores; Kirk Hunsaker, Day's Markets Inc.; Terrel Seely, Terrel's Foodtown and Ray Orion, Lin's Thriftways.

Kent Beckstrom of KMB Management was elected as a new director on the board.

Rep. G. LaMont Richards, R-Salt Lake City, received the Spirit of America award.

Terry Harmon
To Chair Grocers Group

Business

Monday Morning—September 29, 1986
Section D

Page 7

Killer Who Escaped in '81 Gets Parole Date in 2004

A convicted killer who escaped from the Utah State Prison in 1981 while serving a life sentence has been granted a parole date of Sept. 14, 2004, by the Board of Pardons.

Edward Dale Hardy, 34, California, pleaded guilty to the shotgun slaying of a 24-year-old Hill Air Force Base sergeant outside a Davis County bar Feb. 12, 1979.

Hardy escaped from prison May 23, 1981. He took a prison guard hostage, donned the guard's uniform, took the guard's car keys and walked out of the prison by concealing his features behind two garbage sacks he was carrying.

Hardy later served time in the California prison system before being returned to Utah authorities.

Two prisoners previously denied parole were given rehearing dates.

Paul Allen Marwedel, 42, Holladay, serving a life sentence for rape, was given a rehearing date of September 1989. Marwedel pleaded guilty to having sexual intercourse with an 11-year-old Sandy girl.

Arnold Jalo, 50, Springville, serving 1-15 years for sexual abuse of a child, will have a rehearing in September 1987. Jalo was denied parole at a previous hearing.

In other business, the board granted four new parole dates, scheduled four rehearing dates and terminated one sentence.

Hershell L. Robinson, 29, Belraque, Mo., serving 0-5 years for aggravated assault, will terminate his sentence March 8, 1988.

Rehearings were scheduled as follows: William John Braun, 38, West Jordan, serving 1-15 years for sexual abuse of a child, March 1988; Blaine E. Bishop, 41, Hillside, serving 1-life for rape of a child, September 1990; Andrew E. Segura, 26, Salt Lake City, serving a life sentence for aggravated sexual assault, June 1989, and Richard Andrew Spiers, 30, Salt Lake City, serving 0-5 for attempted abuse of a child, June 1989.

Granted parole dates were Floyd Raymond Mares, 21, Seminole, Fla., serving 0-5 years for theft, June 9, 1987; Patrick Steven Martinez, 22, Salt Lake City, serving 0-5 years for theft concurrent with a 0-5 year sentence for being an accessory to burglary, March 10, 1987; James Robert Rhinehart, 45, Utah, serving 1-15 for robbery, March 14, 1989, and Bruce D. Taylor, 30, Salt Lake City, serving 1-15 years for possession of a controlled substance, Aug. 11, 1987.

The board also revoked paroles for five former inmates and terminated one sentence during parole violation hearings.

Sentence was terminated Sept. 24, for Hurley Parkhurst, 28, Provo, who was paroled Dec. 14, 1982.

Parole violators remanded back to prison and given new parole dates were Denise Boney, 28, Ogden, Feb. 10, 1987; Richard Von Jensen, 22, West Jordan, June 14, 1988; Julian Torres, 26, Utah, Oct. 14, 1986; Daniel Vigil, 36, Salt Lake City, April 12, 1988, and David Newitt, 33, West Valley City, March 8, 1988.

'WordSpell' is FREE!

brother.
ELECTRONIC OFFICE DUTY TYPEWRITER

WordSpell checks spelling automatically as you type. It's the hottest new feature on Brother Electronic Office Typewriters. The Brother EM-511 has Memory, page formatting and many other features standard. You'd normally pay extra for WordSpell, but right now, WordSpell is FREE!

Combined Sugg. Retail
OVER $880!

FREE!